WineScapes with Paul Cullen at the Biggs Museum Saturday, June 9, 2012

Dover, DE (May 29, 2012) – Join the Biggs Museum on Saturday, June 9 at 5:00 p.m. for an evening of contemporary jazz with Paul Cullen during an Unplugged and Uncorked performance. Paul Cullen toured the world with Bad Company, playing bass guitar in front of millions of people during the 90s. WineScapes will offer the perfect combination of Cullen’s jazzy cool acoustic music and his private wine label Sonata, which offers three wines Sonata Bianco, Sonata Rossa, and Sonata Rose. The Wood Fired Pizza Truck will also be on hand to prepare fresh personal pizzas for each guest. A handmade imported Italian oven sits on the back of a 1956 Ford F250 flatbed truck and produces true artisan pizza. The dough will be made by owner Matt Hans who hand stretches, tosses, and tops the crusts with sun ripened California tomatoes and toppings of your preference. Vitale’s will also be serving delectable ice cream and Italian ice to help keep you cool. This promises to be a relaxing evening with great friends, delicious food and enjoyable wine. Tickets are $35 per person. Ticket price includes one individual pizza pie from the Wood Fired Pizza Truck, two glasses of Sonata wine, Vitale’s ice cream and Italian ice and a live jazz performance by Paul Cullen. Tickets can be ordered by calling 302-674-2111 ext. 101 or online at www.biggsmuseum.org
